Numb. 258.

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

THURSDAY DECEMBER 7, 1738.

NEW-YORK, October 23.

On Friday laſt the Lieutenant Governour was pleaſed to diſſolve the General Aſſembly, making the following Speech, viz.

Gentlemen,

WHEN you came together this Fall, I was not without Hopes, that you brought with you hearty Diſpoſitions to conſult the true Intereſt of your Country, which can only be attended by a Loyal and Dutiful regard to His Majeſty's Honour, in the Support of his Goverment, ſince it is from thence only that you can hope for my Aſſent to ſuch Laws as the People whom you repreſent, expect you will prepare for it.

YOU cannot but know, that there are many Things of great Importance to the Province, that call'd for your early Help; for I recommended them to your Conſideration; on ſome of them the Wellfare (I was going to ſay the Fate) of your Country, in a great Meaſure, depends; but how unconcern'd you have been about them, the People whom you repreſent, will ſee by your Votes.

Ever ſince the Revolution, the Æra from whence we may date our preſent Happineſs, in the full Enjoyment of our Civil and ſacred Rights and Liberties, the Aſſemblies of this Province, have from Time to Time, given to his Majeſty and his Royal Predeceſſors, a Revenue for the Support of Government for a Term of Years; what I ask of you, is no more. Other Aſſemblies, prompted only by their Duty, and their Zeal and Affection to his Majeſty, and his Royal Predeceſſors, have given ſuch a Revenue as I have mentioned, but you had beſide theſe, other Inducements to do it.

YOU have a large Sum of Paper Money ſubſiſting, which will be next Year without any Fund to ſink it, its Currency will ceaſe, it will no longer paſs, but become waſte Paper, and Hundreds of People will then be Looſers by it; for it probably will be in ſo many Hands. I offered to continue the ſinking Fund, if you would give ſuch a Revenue as former Aſſemblies have all along given; nor was there any Thing new or unreaſonable in the Demand. The Example of former Aſſemblies, your Duty to his Majeſty, and Gratitude for his conſtant Protection of your Trade and Country, both by Land and Sea, at a vaſt Expence (the Fruits whereof you reap) ought to have determined you to accept of my Offer: But inſtead of expreſſing your Gratitude and Duty, by ſupporting His Majeſty's Government, as former Aſſemblies have done, you ſent Yeſterday two of your Members to acquaint me, That it was unanimouſly Reſolved by your Houſe, not to paſs any Bill for the Grant of Money for the Support of Government, but with Aſſurance that the Bills ſtruck and iſſued in the Year 1714, and 1717, as alſo the Exciſe Act, ſhould be continued from the firſt Day of November, 1739, for a ſufficient Number of Years, to cancel and deſtroy them Bills.

I ſee too in your Votes of Yeſterday in the Afternoon, a Reſolve of your Houſe, in the following Words (to wit)

Reſolved, That in the Bill ordered to be brought in for the further ſupporting this Government until the 31*ſt of* December, which will be in the Year 1739, and for paying the Salaries and Allowances in the Year 1737, there ſhall be added one or more Clauſes to continue the Act, Entitled, An Act for laying an Exciſe on all Strong Liquors retailed in this Colony, paſt in the Twelfth Year of Her late Majeſty Queen ANN, from the firſt Day of November 1739 for ſuch Numbers of Years as the Houſe ſhould conceive, ſufficient to ſink and cancel the Bills of Credit which were ſtruck and iſſued by Virtue of the two Acts commonly called, the long Bills, (paſſed in the Year 1714, and 1717.) and that the Money to ariſe by the Exciſe to be ſo continued, ſhall be applied for ſinking and cancelling the ſaid Bills, and that the ſaid Bills, ſhall ſhall remain current, during the Time the ſaid Exciſe is now intended to be continued.

On this Reſolve you ordered, That the Committee appointed to prepare the Bill firſt mentioned, do add proper Clauſes therein for the Purpoſes mentioned in the fore-going Reſolution.

Theſe are ſuch preſumptious Darings and unpreſidented Steps, that I could not look upon them without Aſtoniſhment, nor with Honour ſuffer you to ſit any longer.

I have therefore thought fit, with the unanimous Advice of his Majeſty's Council to diſſolve you, and you are accordingly diſſolv'd.

WARSAW, Auguſt 15.

Advices from the Frontiers ſay, that a Body of 15,000 Janiſſaries is encamped under the Cannon of Bender, in order to defend that Place againſt the threatened Attacks of the Ruſſians.

Advices from Carloſtadt in Croatia, confirm the News of the Turks having inveſted the Srinin; but being terrified with the Apprehenſion of the Approach of the Imperial Forces, under the Command of Count Eſterhaſia, they retired with great Precipitation and in much Confuſion, leaving behind them ſeveral Pieces of Cannon, with a large Quantity of Warlike Stores. Some Parties were ſent in purſuit of them, but were unable to overtake them. This unexpected Retreat has entirely diſſipated the Fears of the Inhabitants of this Province.

Vienna, Auguſt 16. It's confirmed that the Elector of Bavaria will inſtantly cauſe three Regiments of Foot, of 2300 Men each, and 15 Squadrons, to march into the Emperor's Service, towards which it's ſaid, the Sollicitation of his Poliſh Majeſty has not a little contributed. It's believed that the Grand Vizir, with the Army under his Command, will remain quietly in their Camp at Gladova till they ſee the Succeſs of the Enterprize of the Ruſſian Army againſt Bender. It's publickly talk'd, that an important Negociation is carrying on between the Emperor and his Britannick Majeſty, but the Subject thereof is yet a Secret. The Court has this Day received News that 500 Imperial Troops have found Means of throwing themſelves, and carryed much Proviſion and Ammunition with them, into Orſova. The Emperor has demanded to be ſupplied with 12,000 Recruits of his hereditary Dominions by the End of October; and if the War continues another Campaign, they will be obliged to furniſh him with 25,000 Men more. It's reported, that the Jews eſtabliſhed in ſome of the hereditary Dominions will be obliged to retire.

Frankfort, Auguſt 24. The Magiſtracy of this Town hath ſent a Detachment of Soldiers to Rotterdam to bring a Jew from thence, who, ſome Time ſince, aſſaſſinated at this Place M. Gabeler, Burgomaſter of Heidelburg, it having been determined to give him exemplary Puniſhment.

Legborn, Aug. 8. The Malecontents of Corſica, notwithſtanding the Accommodation, continue to receive Succours from foreign Countries. A Pink from the Coaſt of Catalonia, having lately brought them many Arms and a great deal of Ammunition.

Genoa, Aug. 2. The Britiſh Conſul here has given Notice to the Britiſh Merchants, to bring away with all Expedition their Effects from Spain, and at preſent to ſend no more there He has alſo warn'd the Maſters of the Engliſh Ships to keep off the Coaſt of that Kingdom.

Naples, July 25. O.S. The Governor of the Caſtle of St. Elmo having turned off his Valet de Chambre ſome Days ago, the latter in Revenge fired a Piſtol at him laſt Wedneſday, as he paſs'd in his Coach along the Street of Toledo, but happened by good Luck to miſs his Aim, after which the Fellow retired into a Church for Sanctuary; but a Detachment of Soldiers was ſent to take him out.

LONDON, Aug 24.

We are informed by a Letter from Utrecht, that an Anſwer to ſome Complaints from a certain Quarter, of the Neutrality deſigned to be obſerved by the States General, has been given to the following Effect; 'That their High 'Mightineſſes, very far from being pleaſed with ſeeing a 'War break out between Powers, one of whom is in a par'ticular Manner their Ally, have not only offer'd their 'Mediation, but have even acted as Mediators, in order 'to prevent a Rupture. That, moreover, had the Caſe 'required it, their High Mightineſſes would have acted 'with equal Vigour, to obtain Satisfaction for the Depre'dations of the Spaniards, and to maintain the juſt and free 'Navigation of their Subjects; but the King of Spain had 'recently engaged to give them entire Satisfaction there'upon, as ſoon as his Catholick Majeſty ſhould be more 'fully informed of the Vexations imputed to his Subjects. 'That if, in the End, their High Mightineſſes ſhould, 'from the Inexecution of a Promiſe ſo poſitive, and reite'rated ſo many Times, find themſelves deceived, they 'would then act in a Manner which to them ſhould ſeem 'the moſt effectual to maintain their Rights, and the In'tereſts of their Subjects That the Uprightneſs of their 'Intentions has appeared on many Occaſions, and particularly in the Orders ſent to their Ambaſſador at Madrid, 'to ſollicit, not only that the Grievances which the Dutch 'Veſſels labour'd under ſhould be redreſſed, but that he 'ſhould likewiſe uſe his Inſtances that the ſame Satisfac'tion ſhould be granted to the Britiſh Nation; and ſhould, 'on that Occaſion, make the Intereſt of Great-Britain and 'that of their own a common Cauſe.'

They write from Amſterdam, that the States of Holland are ſeparated until their ordinary Convocation Their Deliberations principally turn'd upon Domeſtick Affairs; but above all, upon that of the India Company, who ſollicited the Prolongation of its Patent; but there are great Complaints of its Adminiſtration, and has been lately a ſort of Commotion in the Houſe of the Amſterdam Company, where ſix or ſeven Hundred Sailors, who returned from the Indies with the laſt Fleet, claimed two Months Wages which were refuſed them, becauſe they arrived this Year by the Narrow Seas, and not by the North of Scotland: However, at laſt they conſtrained the Directors to pay them, and ſome of thoſe Gentlemen were in Danger of being torn in Pieces.

Extract of a Letter from Madrid, dated Auguſt 6, N. S.

'The Reſolution of the Britiſh Court to ſend a Fleet to the Weſt-Indies, has determined the King to diſpatch Orders on that Head to the Governors of the Havannah St. Auguſtine, and other Ports in America belonging to this Crown. We are aſſured, that in one of the Conferences which the Marquis de la Quadra has lately had with Mr. Keene the Britiſh Miniſter, he complain'd to his Excellency about the great Liberties which the Engliſh News Writers take whenever they mention the Spaniſh Affairs It is ſaid that Mr Keene anſwer'd, that the Freedom of Writing being greater in England than in any other Country, it might happen they made uſe of that Liberty in a Juncture when the Engliſh were highly diſcontented at the Loſſes they had ſuffered by the Spaniards.
